

A Taste of the Orient

USC Wine & Dine Weekend

Mt Buller,
April 13-15, 2018

Join us for a weekend discovering the Orient: delicious food, good company and fine wine at Mount Buller USC lodge.

Delatite Winery wine tasting included!

Members, children, provisional members and guests are all welcome. Numbers are strictly limited to ensure couples / families have their own room.

The price includes accommodation on Friday and Saturday nights at USC Mount Buller. All meals from Friday dinner to Sunday lunch are included in the price and to kick off the weekend we will be out on the deck cooking up some classic Asian street food, a selection of delicious satays accompanied by traditional salads, sambals and dipping sauces.

On Saturday evening, sip your way through a showcase of locally produced, bio-dynamically grown and often award-winning wines with Delatite Winery. Beginning with bubbles, you'll taste your way through a range of aromatic white, rose and cool climate reds.

Our wine tasting will be complemented with a selection of Asian inspired appetisers, followed by an exotic fusion dinner of the best of South and Far East Asian flavours from countries such as Thailand, Vietnam, Malaysia, Japan and Indonesia. Don't like spicy? Don't worry, we cater to all tastes!

Please BYO beer, soft drinks and wine for your dinner if you wish. Delatite Winery will have a small selection of wines to purchase and larger orders will be available for collection on the way home on Sunday.

As always, assistance will be required with food preparation, cooking and cleaning up (similar to the club's Saturday night dinners - but more relaxed and exciting) and recipes will be provided.

And feel free to come dressed with a touch of the orient for Saturday dinner if you like!

There will also be plenty of time to enjoy the late summer activities in the village and/or nearby hills. Details of what the mountain has on are available at <http://www.mtbuller.com.au/Summer/>

Parking: in the non-snow season, mountain access is free and you can park anywhere in the village, so you will be able to park right outside USC.

The rate for this special weekend is $169 per person (flat rate for members, members' affiliates, members' children, provisional members and guests).

Places are limited so reserve your place quickly!
